Up to now we preferred to put all the instructions directly on the web pages, because many people prefer to have some instructions on the page itself than to have a separate paper.

We also are collecting all the Q&A we receive in the FAQ... if you want to access them just create a login at the link <http://start.softconf.com/otrs/customer.pl> . You will be able to review all the questions you made us with the answers. Once done, send me an e-mail, and I will enable for you the FAQs.
